Import of Barley Malt

*220. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

- (a) whether Government have allowed import of barley malt;
- (b) if so, reasons therefor;
- (c) whether imported barley malt has adversely affected the growers of barley in the country;
- (d) the foreign exchange out-flow during 1998-99 and the current year due to import of barley malt; and
- (e) the steps proposed to review this policy?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) to (e) Barley Malt is not classified separately under the ITC (HS) Classifications of Export and Import Items, 1997-2002. However, Malt is classified under Exim Code Heading 11.07 of ITC (HS) Classifications of Export and Import Items. Import of Malt, including that of Barley Malt has been free since 1.4.1996. As per provisional data available with the Government, the foreign exchange outflow on import of Malt including Barley Malt was Rs. 72,38,567 during 1998-99 and a Rs. 87,07,328 during the period April 99 to November, 99. Import data for the current year has not yet been compiled.

The basic customs duty for import of malt is 40%. At the present level of imports and the applicable customs duty, the domestic growers are unlikely to be seriously affected.
